

Every Christmas, I think of that moment in A Charlie Brown Christmas, where Charlie cries out, “Isn’t there anyone who knows what Christmas is all about?”

Then Linus steps forward, blanket in hand, and says, “Sure Charlie Brown, I can tell you what Christmas is all about...” He then begins to recite Luke 2: “Fear not, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy...”

No lights. No fanfare. Just truth.

That’s what this year has felt like at BetterMan: men quietly stepping forward as they help other men rediscover what life is all about.

6000+

GROUPS LAUNCHED

ALL 50 STATES &
60+ COUNTRIES

SERVED

3000+

CHURCHES EQUIPPED

95% of men who finish
BetterMan feel more confident to LEAD, LOVE, and SERVE

Because of your generosity, fathers are praying with their sons. Marriages are being restored. Men are returning to church with courage and clarity. Like Linus dropping his blanket, they’re learning that strength isn’t about control, it’s about surrender.

Thank you for believing in this mission and standing with us in the fight for biblical manhood.

As you’re prayerfully considering your year-end giving, would you stand with us once more? Your Christmas gift will help launch new groups, equip more churches, and reach more men in 2026 – men still asking, “Isn’t there anyone who knows what life is all about?”

Because of you, they’ll hear the answer: “Yes. His name is Jesus.”

Chris Harper

Merry Christmas,
Dr. Chris Harper
Chief Storyteller & CEO | BetterMan

BETTERMAN